

Student Testimonials

Do you enjoy the Black Writer a Day series for Black History Month? If so, why?

"I do because I learn about someone new everyday!"

"I love the black writer a day. This is because I get to learn about writers and their amazing books! I also like to hear about the stories behind the books."

"Yes because I can learn about new writers. I got The Crossover by Kwame Alexander and I love it."

"I like Black Writer a Day for Black History Month because it lets us ease into the day and I see books I might be interested in reading."

"Yes, because I can learn about different authors and books that I never heard of before."

"I like it because every day we get to find out new authors that you might like."

"Yes because I can know all the black people who have been an author."

"I love Black Writer a Day because I get to learn about people I didn't [know] exist which is kind of weird."

"I do like it because you get to learn so much more about who writes books about their life."

"YES, I just want you to do a slide on William Kamkwamba because I am reading his book right now and I LOVE it, The Boy Who Harnessed the Wind."

"Yes because it's so interesting hearing about all these people who can write all these awesome books and I loooooooooooooove books."

"I like the Black Writer a Day because it gives me ideas of what authors to look for in the library."

"I do because I like Black history reports."

"Sure because it's cool and it takes up time during the class period :)."

"Yes, I do because I get to experience many African American writers and some I didn't even know I'm glad I got to learn about them."

"I love Black Writer a Day because it gets me interested in more books in the library. Some of the books I've seen before but wasn't sure if I wanted to read it or not."

"I liked it because of it's black history month and I didn't know there was so many black writers and they are really good at writing books and they [give] courage to a lot of people."

"I do because I get to learn something interesting and during February which is Black history month. I really like them because I like learning about interesting people like these Black authors."