

Task 1

List the AAWWWUUBBIST words and all the FANBOYS.

Task 2

Combine the following sentences using: "and," "but," or "so." (Use each only once.)

1. I want a dog. My parents won't get one.
2. The store is closed. We have to go somewhere else.
3. My sister likes reading. She also likes writing.

Task 3

Combine the following sentences using a subordinating conjunction. Use three different subordinating conjunctions.

1. The school is closed. It is snowing.
2. The movie was over. We went home.
3. I got a good grade. I studied.

Task 4

Identify if the following are dependent (DC) or independent (IC).

1. Since we walked home
2. Chocolate is the best flavor
3. The book was due
4. After Phil goes to practice
5. The movie ended shortly before 7pm

Task 5

Identify the subject(s) and verb(s).

1. Jenny and Allison play instruments.
2. I learned to speak a new language at school.
3. The rain finally stopped, and the sun came out.
4. Maria likes to play soccer and read books in her spare time.
5. Jenny rode the bus home, and then she took her dog for a walk.

Task 6

Identify if the bolded word is being used as a subordinating conjunction or a preposition.

1. After tomorrow's game
2. Before the day is over
3. Until we know the answer
4. Since yesterday's four hour flight
5. As my sister cleaned her room

Task 7

Underline any independent clauses, and squiggly underline any dependent clauses.

1. Before we leave, we have to pack up the car.
2. Until Monday, the dog will be at grandma's because we are going on vacation.
3. I want to eat pizza, and I also want to have ice cream.
4. Before school, I have to take out the trash.
5. The teacher rearranged the desks because the students needed to work in pairs.

Task 8

Circle the relative pronoun or subordinating conjunction. Underline the independent clause. Squiggly underline the relative clause or dependent clause.

1. The neighbor who lives in the yellow house is moving.
2. The umbrella that has polka dots is broken.
3. The college where my brother goes is in Virginia.
4. We are going on a trip when I graduate.
5. The kids who live next door are always outside playing.